A JOURNALIST IN MONTGUYON HIGH SCHOOL !

Welcome to Katie Campling...

Katie Campling is a journalist for The Huddersfield Daily Examiner. She travels a lot and she has visited Italy, France, Scotland, Ireland, Spain, Turkey and Czech Republic. Her favourite countries are France and Spain but she particularly loves Paris and Barcelona.

Katie with Flora, Lisa, Mélissa and Gaëla.

When she visited France, she went to Paris (3times), the Vienne « département », Aix island, Saintes and Bordeaux. Katie even bought souvenirs during her travels. She also visited the Eiffel Tower, the catacombs and Saintes Abbey with Mrs Charrier. Katie prefers the Charente-Maritime « département ». She likes eating « palais bretons », « crêpes » and generally « enjoys the savoury of French food », she said.

Thanks to her job, she went to Leeds on November 16th 2008 because she won a journalist award (she wrote an article on her friend who had leukaemia) and her newspaper won a total of 3 awards. Katie loves writing about pop music and fashion but she hates sport articles (rugby, football..). She only writes sports when there is a big match for the city because «it's more interesting». Katie met Gordon Brown, the British Prime Minister, when she went to 10, Downing Street for the Leukaemia campaign with her friend Adrian Sudbury.

Mrs Charrier met Katie 14 years ago. «Mrs Charrier came to my house and she had dinner with my mother. She then slept at my father's house.». They were penfriends at first when they were both at high school.

We thank her for having answered our questions. We now wish we met OUR London penfriends soon and became friends like Mrs Charrier and Katie !
